Traffic vs. terrorism

Traffic

1.2 million

Flood losses:

$52bn

Traffic

Fatalities

2015:

30,000

Megacities

The number of cities with populations >10m is rising.

Forecast by 2050

31

Us’s crumbling infrastructure

Infrastructure security rankings of US cities:

1. San Francisco
2. New York
3. Los Angeles
4. Chicago
5. Washington DC
6. Dallas
7. Beijing
8. Tokyo
9. Sao Paulo
10. Moscow
11. Mumbai
12. Sao Paulo
13. Moscow
14. Mumbai
15. Buenos Aires

Rising tides

Coastal cities face serious threats from floods.

Flood losses:

$6bn

Pedestrians are wounded or killed by car accidents.

Mobile safety

Fogo Cruzado (Cross Fire) is an app developed to alert citizens of gun battles occurring.

Infrastructure cyber-attack vulnerabilities rise. Inter-agency cooperation is at risk of being undermined.

Digital safety

City of Chicago cooperating with the Department of Defense and local colleges on cyber-security training.

Health security

All cities in the top five are associated with universal health coverage.

Safety infrastructure

Stockholm moved up 7 places in the rankings, 2nd biggest leap after Hong Kong.

Personal security

US $2bn in lost cash was traced by Tokyo Metropolitan Police in 2018.

Mobile apps

Mobile apps are a feature of many cities.

Flood losses:

$52bn

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic

Traffic