

Business Structure from April 2013

NEC changed its organizational structure as of April 1, 2013 in order to create new customer value and quickly respond to global market conditions. These changes enable NEC to more effectively promote its products and services around the world.

